About Trollbeads

Trollbeads, a Danish family-owned jewellery brand, was established in 1976 and invented the original bead-on-bracelet concept. At the core of the brand lies self-expression through 600 different beads in sterling silver, 18K gold, artisan glass, freshwater pearls and gemstones. Trollbeads jewellery is available in more than 30 countries through the company's own flagship stores, independent retailers and online at www.trollbeads.com.
